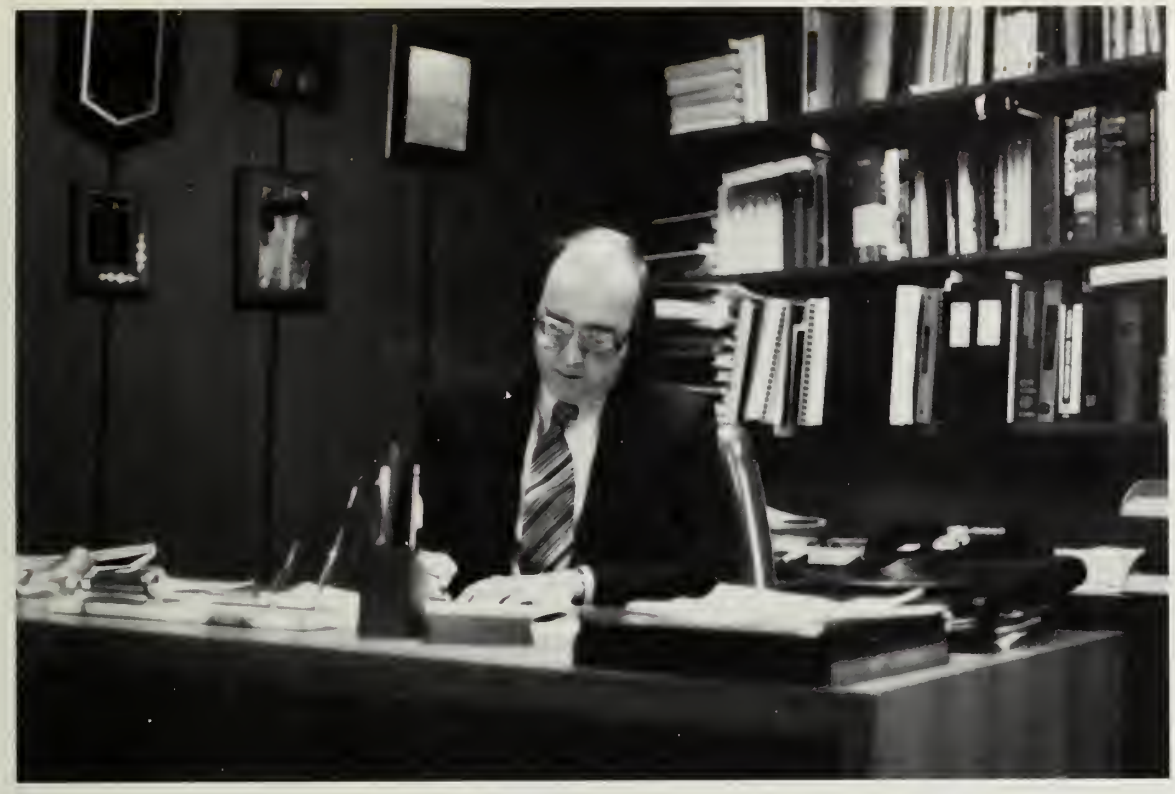
— A SERIES OF LETTERS WHICH SYMBOLIZE OUR THREE YEARS OF PHARMACY SCHOOL

TERRA MARIAE

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

1980

We the class of 1980 dedicate our yearbook to Kyle and Gail, the newborn children of Bob and Kathy Beardsley and Gary and Lynn Lesher. Kyle and Gail bring a newborn spirit into the decade which we the class of 1980 hope we have brought into the School of Pharmacy.



DEAN'S MESSAGE

Pills, powders, and cachets are pharmaceutical products that reflect the past of our profession. The clearness of the elixirs, the neatness of the folded powder papers, and the stability of the emulsions were some of the criteria that evidenced the level of art and elegance in the practice of a pharmacist. The accuracy of that practice met the limited standards of the time while the specificity of the drug dispensed was almost non-existent. These and other responsibilities were just part of the professional mantle worn by the pharmacist as a health care provider and advisor. It is important to remember that those practitioners were also recognized for their business integrity and professional ethics by their neighbors, customers, and colleagues,.

In this day and age of tablets and capsules, of TPN and unit dose, of kinetics and computers, there is a tendency to let technology and the new service responsibilities overshadow the professional attributes of integrity and ethics. Even the schools of pharmacy in their effort to provide their graduates with the full cup of pharmaceutical knowledge often gloss over discussions on those topics, and yet they are extremely important since pharmacy has been given a public trust for the provision of drugs to the ill. Trite as that might be to some, it is a responsibility that should not be taken lightly. Each illegal sale of drugs, each incompetent act erodes the respect for our profession.

Professional competence has been given to you by the School, and affirmed by the licensure examination. Your ethical competence is something only you can determine at this time. As you begin your professional career, set your ethical standards high and resist any forces that would cause you to take a step back from those ideals, lofty as they might be.

U.T.C.

MARYLAND PHARMACY HAS LOST A VALUED FRIEND WHEN HENRY G. SEIDMAN PASSED AWAY ON FEBRUARY 14, 1980. HENRY'S SERVICE TO THE PROFESSION OF PHARMACY THROUGH HIS MANY ACTIVITIES WAS WELL KNOWN TO US ALL. HE TOUCHED OUR LIVES IN MANY WAYS.

HENRY WAS DIRECTOR OF CONTINUING EDUCATION AND AN ASSISTANT PROFESSOR AT THE SCHOOL OF PHARMACY. THROUGH THIS WORK HE SPREAD KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE THROUGH OUTSTANDING PROGRAMS WHILE HE LABORED BEHIND THE SCENES TO MAKE IT ALL POSSIBLE.

HE SERVED IN A NUMBER OF OFFICES OF THE ASSOCIATION INCLUDING A PRODUCTIVE TERM AS PRESIDENT IN 1975. AGAIN HIS CONCERN AND DEDICATION TO THE PROFESSION HE LOVED SHOWED THROUGH ALL THAT HE ACCOMPLISHED WITHIN THE ASSOCIATION.

HIS AWARDS AND HONORS OVER THE YEARS FROM FRATERNAL, SOCIAL AND PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES REMIND US HOW THOROUGHLY HE WAS INVOLVED IN ORGANIZATIONS TOO NUMEROUS TO MENTION HERE.

HE WAS A MAN OF TREMENDOUS ENERGY, VITALITY AND COMPASSION. HE WAS BLESSED WITH A RARE SENSE OF HUMOR. MARYLAND PHARMACY HAS LOST A GREAT FRIEND, TIRELESS WORKER AND DEDICATED PHARMACIST.
